The below mentioned borrowers have availed gold loan from our bank and they have failed to repay it. Even after repeated demand from the bank officers, meeting borrowers personally and sending them notices they have not come forward to close their accounts. Hence, bank has decided to go for auction of jewels pledged as security for the loan at our Branch premises. If any borrower is deceased then this notice is applicable to his/her legal heirs. The auction can be postponed or cancelled as per the discretion of the Branch Manager. If the jewels were sold at lower price than the present book outstanding then the interest will charged on remaining amount and borrower will be liable to pay the remaining amount along with further interest.
