

SBI says home-loan queries jump 3-times since rate cut

Hyderabad, Jan 7

STATE Bank of India (SBI) is leaving no stones unturned to kick-start the credit offtake, and last week's steep 0.90 bps lending rate cut has resulted in a huge number of enquiries, especially for home loans, a top bank official said in Hyderabad on Saturday.

"Credit growth has been very, very subdued so far. In fact, our loan book has not grown at all after the note ban announcement on November 8. Now, the focus is on growing the loan book,"

Rajnish Kumar, managing director in charge of national banking, told reporters.

He said already there is a visible pick-up in loan enquiries, especially for home loans with online queries alone jumping over three-times since the rate cut last Sunday.

"Already there is a lot of excitement in the housing loan market since the rate cut announcement, wherein we steeply cut our lending rates. We are seeing lots of interest. In fact, traffic on our portal has grown by almost three times since the rate cut announcement,"

Kumar said, adding that if the home loan marker revives, it will be good for the economy.
